Course Description

Spanish 2 requires students to be able to read, speak, and listen in Spanish at the Intermediate Low level. At this level, students will be able to:

- understand the main idea and some details on familiar topics expressed in sentences, short conversations, presentations, and messages.
- understand the main idea and some details in texts that contain familiar vocabulary.
- begin and carry on a conversation on a limited number of familiar topics. Students can ask and answer simple questions and exchange information in familiar situations using phrases and a series of sentences.
- provide information on familiar topics using a series of sentences with some details.
- write on familiar topics and experiences using a series of sentences with some details.

This course uses the vocabulary and grammar as outlined by the Real Academia Española. The expectation is that students will use proper spelling, accents, and grammar in the courses.

The proficiency definitions used in this course are guided by the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines \(opens in a new window\). The curriculum used in this course is guided by the South Carolina World Language Academic Standards \(opens in a new window\).
